In the Name of Allāh, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful

Introduction

The Noble Prophet (prayers of Allāh be upon him and his family) has said:

“The person from my nation who memorizes forty traditions pertaining to those issues of religion which one is in need of, will be resurrected by Allāh on the Day of Judgement as a person with deep insight into the faith and as a scholar.”

In following the above Ḥadith, The Islamic Education Board of The World Federation of KSIMC (IEB - WF) has decided to publish a series of booklets of 40 Ḥadīth on different subjects. The Ḥadīth that have been selected from various sources, are short and simple and therefore easy to understand and memorize. It is envisaged that the booklets will not only be useful for Zakireen, Madrasah teachers and students, but will be of benefit to the Ummah at large.

The collection of the Ḥadīth and introduction of this present work was done by Maḥmūd Sharīfī [as found on the InterNet at http://www.hawzah.net/Per/K/Qadir/Qadir.htm], while the translation in English was carried out by Shaykh Saleem Bhimji. IEB - WF would like to thank Shaykh Saleem for his efforts in the translation of this work. May Allāh (Glory and Greatness be to Him) accept this work as a further attempt by IEB - WF to propagate Islām.

Introduction

In the tenth year after the migration to Madinah, the year which later became known as Ḥajjatul Wida’ [The (year of the) farewell Ḥajj], the Muslims who had accompanied the Noble Prophet ﷺ to Makkah were finishing their Ḥajj rites. Once the Ḥajj was complete, the Prophet ﷺ and those with him were making their way back to Madinah and the other cities from which they had come.

When they reached Rābigh - a spot three miles from Juḥfah, one of the miqāt for the Ḥujjāj - the order came from Allāh ﷻ to halt the entire caravan.

At this point, the Truthful conveyor of the revelation, Jibrā’īl ﷺ came to the Prophet ﷺ who was stationed in the valley known as Ghadīr Khumm and revealed the following verse of the Qur’ān to him:

wa allahu ya‘ūsīmūk mīn al-nās...

“O’ Messenger! Convey that which has been revealed to you from your Lord and if you do not do so, it is as if you have not conveyed His message at all, and Allāh will protect you from the people...” (Sūratul Māidah (5), Verse 67)
Since this verse commanded the Prophet ﷺ to stop right where he was, he himself and those with him, halted in the valley of Ghadir.

It was noontime, and as can be expected, the weather was extremely hot. The Noble Prophet ﷺ performed Ṣalātul Zuhr in congregation, and then with multitudes of people around him, ascended to a small platform built from camel saddles and other things that the Muslims had with them.

In a loud voice, he gave a long speech and said to the people: “O’ people! Know that shortly I shall answer the call of The Truth (Allāh) and will no longer be among you – I have a responsibility (to Allāh) and you too have a responsibility (towards Him).”

The Prophet ﷺ then mentioned something very important to the people and stated: “I am leaving behind two weighty things to you as a trust – one of them is the Book of Allāh, and the other is my family, the Ahlul Bait. These two shall never separate from one another. O’ people! Do not attempt to supersede the Qur’ān and my family, and do not be negligent in your actions towards these two, because if you do so, you shall be destroyed.”

After stating this, he took the hand of ʿAlī ☪, raised it up and introduced him to the multitudes of people and asked: “Who has more of a right over the believers than their own selves?” Everyone present proclaimed: “Allāh and His Prophet know better.”
The Noble Prophet ﷺ then said: “Allāh is my master and I am the master of all the believers and I have more right and authority over the believers than they have over their own selves.”

Then he continued:

من كنت مولاه فهذا علي مولاه. أللهم وآل من وآله وعاد من عاداه.

“Whomsoever I am his master, this ‘Ali is also his master. O’ Allāh! Befriend he who befriends him (‘Ali) and oppose he who opposes him (‘Ali).”

The Angel of Revelation, Jibra’il ☪ once again descended by the order of Allāh ☪ and this time, revealed the following verse of the Qur’ān:

اليوم أكملت لكم دينكم و أتممت عليكم نعمةي و رضيت لكم الإسلام دينا

“On this day have I completed your religion for you and perfected My bounties upon you and am pleased with Islām as being your religion.”

Therefore, this day was marked in history as a momentous and grand day.
The day of Ghadīr was a day of epic proportions in history. It was a day which would become known as the Day of Wilāyat (Mastership); the Day of Imāmate (Leadership); the Day of Wišāyat (Successorship); the Day of Brotherhood; the Day of Valour; the Day of Courage, Bravery and Protection (of the faith); the Day of Pleasure for the Believers; and the Day of Candidness.

It was a Day of:

- (Divine) blessings;
- Showing thanks to the Almighty;
- Conveyance of the message;
- Congratulations and felicitations;
- Happiness, delight and gift giving;
- The pact and promise and renewal of the Pledge of Allegiance;
- Completion of the religion;
- Expression of the truth;
- Grief of Shaiṭān;
- Introducing the leader and the (true) path;
- Testing (the faith) of the Muslims;
- Despair for the enemies;
- Hope for the (true) friends.

In summary, it was the Day of Islām, Qur’ān, and the Ahlul Bait ﷺ. It was the day which the followers of the true teachings of the faith of Islām mark with great esteem and a day when they congratulate one another.

It can be understood from the Aḥādith that the Aʾīmmah ﷺ took this day as one of celebration and used to hold special programs to celebrate this event. It has been narrated from Fayyāḍ ibne Muḥammad at-Ţūsī that, “I was in the presence of the 8th Imām on the day of Ghadīr (18th of Dhul Ḥijjah). I saw a particular group of people serving the Imām and the Imām was (intentionally) keeping them in his house until the time of sunset came so that he may give them food to eat (and thus enable them to break their fast). The Imām ordered that food, new clothes, shoes, rings, and other gifts be sent for their families. In the house, I noticed that the state of all of those present was something completely different than normal, and it was from those people that I learned the greatness and magnitude of this day.” (Biḥārul Anwār, volume 97, page 112, Ḥadīth 8)

In another Ḥadīth it has been mentioned that one day during the days of the “open caliphate” of Imām ʿAlī ﷺ, the day of Jumuʿah and ʿEid Ghadır fell together. On this day, the Imām ﷺ delivered a long speech and said, “This gathering shall soon come to an end and all of you will go back to your homes and families – may Allāh shower His mercy upon all of you.

On this day, you should be kind to your families and do good deeds to your brothers. You should thank Allāh for the blessings which He has granted you. You must also be sure to unite with one another so that through this, Allāh may assist you.

Do good to others so that Allāh makes your friendship firm and immovable. From the blessings which Allāh has given you, give gifts to one another. On this day, Allāh will give rewards (to you) in multiple folds compared to other days of celebration (‘Eid). This form of reward cannot be attained except through this day (Ghadır). Doing good to others and giving away much wealth to others increases the life span. Being a host to others results in the mercy and love of Allāh descending upon you.

On this day, as much as you are able to, give your brothers and family a portion of the wealth which Allāh has granted you.

Always be smiling and in a happy mood when you meet one another; and be sure to thank Allāh for the blessings which He has showered upon you.
Go towards those people whose hope may lie in you and do good to them. In regards to your food and drink (on this day), ensure that between you and those who are under your care and supervision, there is equality. This equality and equity must be displayed to the extent of your ability (and you should know that) the reward of giving one dirham of charity on this day is equivalent to giving 100,000 dirhams of charity (on any other day) and the Divine bounty of this is in Allâh’s hands alone.

Allâh has also made it highly recommended to fast on this day and has promised a great reward for one who observes it. If a person was to look after the needs and necessities of his brothers, even before his own wishes and desires (were expressed to Allâh), and if one was to look after their requests in the best possible way, then one would be granted such a reward that it would be equivalent to fasting the entire day and spending the entire night in worship until the morning hours.

A person who feeds another fasting person on this day will be equal to that person who went person by person and fed all of the fasting people (with his own hands).

You must convey all that you have just heard to those who are not here. The strong and able people must go out in search of the weak people; the powerful must go in search of the oppressed, as these are all things which the Prophet ﷺ has commanded me to do.”
Imām ‘Alī ٱلّٰهُ صَلِّي لَعْبُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ) then read the Khutbah for Jumu‘ah and performed the Ṣalāt al-Jumu‘ah (since there is no special Ṣalāt for this ‘Eid). He then went with his children and Shi‘a to the house of Imām Ḥusain ٱلّٰهُ صَلِّي لَعْبُونَ عَلَيْهِمْ, where food was ready, and he distributed gifts to the Shi‘a – both the needy and the free from need - who had accompanied him, and then instructed them to go home to their families.”¹

Inshā-Allāh, we hope that one day all Muslims of the world will mark the day of ‘Eidul Ghadîr in such a great and magnanimous way and celebrate it as it deserves to be celebrated.

It has been narrated from Ziyād ibn Mūhammad that he said, “I went to see Abī ‘Abdillāh [Ja’far ibn Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) and said to him, “Do the Muslims have an ‘Eid other than the day of Jumu‘ah and al-Fīṭr and al-Aḏḥā?’” The Imām (peace be upon him) replied to me, “Yes, the day which the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) appointed Amīrul Mo’minin (peace be upon him) [as the leader of the Ummah after him].”

The Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) has said: “The day of Ghadīr Khumm is the best ‘Eid of my nation. It is the day on which Allāh, the High, ordered me to mention the appointment of my brother, ‘Alī ibne Abī Ṭālīb as the flag and standard of my nation. People shall be guided by him after me and this is the day in which Allāh completed the religion and perfected the bounties upon my nation and on which He was pleased with Islām as their religion.”
It has been narrated from as-Ṣādiq [Imām Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) that he said, “This is the greatest ‘Eid of Allāh, and every Prophet appointed by Allāh celebrated this day as an ‘Eid, and knew the sanctity of this day. The name of this day in the heavens is the Day of the Allegiance and Well-Known Pact, and on the Earth this Day is known as the Day of the Promise which is taken and the Day of the Gathering of those who witnessed (the event).”

The ‘Eid of Wilāyah

“ Çağıl lâbi 'Abîd Allâh [Imâm Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣâdiq] (peace be upon him): “Do the true believers have an ‘Eid other than the two ‘Eid (of al-‘Aḍḥā and al-Fīṭr) and the Jumu‘ah?” The Imâm replied, “Yes, they have one which is even greater than these ones and that is the day when Amirul ‘Alîmînîn (peace be upon him) was designated by the Messenger of Allâh (blessings of Allâh be upon him and his family) with the Wilâyah (at Ghâdir Khumm) which rests on the necks of all the men and women.”

The Day of Renewal of the Oath of Allegiance

It has been narrated from ‘Ammār ibn Ḥarīz that he said, “I went to see Abī ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja‘far ibn Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) on the 18th of Dhul Ḥijjah and found him fasting. He said to me, ‘This is a great day. Allāh has magnified the sacredness of this day for the true believers and perfected the religion for them and completed upon them the bounties and renewed the pledge which He had taken from them (previously).’

السَّمَآءِ أَشْهَرٌ مِنْهُ فِي الْأَرْضِ.

Al-Riḍā [Imām ‘Alī ibne Mūsā] (peace be upon him) has said, “My father related to me from his father (peace be upon them) that, ‘The Day of Ghadīr is more well known in the heavens than it is on the Earth.’”

Hadith Number 7
An Incomparable ‘Eid

Imām ‘Alī (peace be upon him) has said, “Surely this is a highly recognized day, on it the succor was brought, and the station (of the one who was worthy of it) was elevated, and the proofs (of Allāh) were made manifest. This is the day when from a pure station, words were clearly and straightforwardly stated, and this is the day of the completion of the religion and the (day) when the promise and pact were taken…”

Biḥārul Anwār, Volume 97, Page 116
As-Ṣādiq [Imām Jaʿfar ibn Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) has said, “I swear by Allāh that if people knew the true greatness of this day, the Angels would shake hands with them ten times every day ... and Allāh would grant a person who recognizes (the greatness of this day) what can not be enumerated.”
Hadith Number 9
A Luminous ‘Eid

قَالَ أَبُو عَبْدِ اللَّهِ عَلَيْهِ الصَّلاةُ وَ سَلَامُ: وَ يَوْمٌ غَدِيرٌ بَيْنَ الْفَطْرِ وَ الأَضْحَى وَ يَوْمٌ الْجُمْعَةِ كَالْقَمْرِ بَيْنَ الْكَواكبِ.

Abū ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) has said, “The Day of Ghadīr, in comparison to the (‘Eids of) al-Fiṭr, al-Aḍḥā and the day of Jumu‘ah, is like the moon in relation to the rest of the planets.”

Abū ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Šādiq] (peace be upon him) has said, “When the Day of Judgement comes about, four days shall hasten towards Allāh, the Noble and Grand, just as a bride hastens towards her bridal chamber: the day of al-Fiṭr, the day of al-Aḍḥā, the day of al-Jumu‘ah, and the day of Ghadir Khumm.”

Hadith Number 11
The Day of the Message and the Wilāyat

The Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) has said, “O’ assembly of Muslims – those who are present must convey the following to those who are not, “I advise the person who believes in me and has confirmed me (as being the final Prophet) to accept the Wilāyat (mastership of ‘Ali). Now surely the mastership of ‘Ali is my mastership, and my mastership is the mastership of my Lord. This is a pledge from my Lord which He commanded me to convey to all of you.”

Biḥārul Anwār, Volume 37, Page 131, Hadith 35
Abū 'Abdillāh [Imām Ja'far ibn Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) has said, “…and surely this is the day when the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) appointed ‘Ali (peace be upon him) as the flag for the people and made known his greatness and successorship; and he fasted on this day as a sign of thanks to Allāh, the Glorious and Noble. This day should be taken as one of fasting, feeding others, establishing ties with brothers (in faith), and on this day is the pleasure of the Most Merciful (al-Raḥmān) and the rubbing in the dust (humiliation) of the face of Shaīṭān."

The Day of Gifts

It has been narrated from Amirul Mo'minin [‘Ali ibne Abi Ṭālib] (peace be upon him) that he said, “...when you meet each other (on the Day of ‘Eid Ghadir), shake hands with one another with greetings (of peace) and exchange gifts on this day and let those who are present convey this to those who are not, and let the rich person give something to the poor, and the powerful one to the weak, as the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) commanded me to (also) do this.”

Wasā'il ash-Shi'a, Volume 7, Page 327
It has been narrated from Amirul Mo’minin [‘Alî ibn Abî Ṭâlib] (peace be upon him) that he said, “...how shall the state of that person be who has taken the responsibility upon himself for a number of the believing men and believing women (on the Day of Ghadîr) since I personally have guaranteed that person protection from disbelief and poverty, in the presence of Allâh, the Most High.”

Hadith Number 16
The Day of Doing Good to Others

It has been narrated from as-Ṣādiq [Imām Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) that he said, “...giving one dirham to a brother in faith and who has cognizance (of the greatness and importance of the day of Ghadīr) is equal to giving 1,000 dirham (at any other time). Therefore on this day, give to your brothers and make all of the believing men and believing women happy and delighted.”

Hadith Number 17
The Day of Joy and Happiness

قال أبو عبّد الله: أنّه يوم عيّد وفرح وسرور ويوم صوم شكرًا لله تعالى.

Abū ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja’far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) has said: “Surely this day [18th of Dhul Ḥijjah] is a day of festivity, joy and happiness and it is a day of fasting as a sign of thanks to Allāh, the Most High.”

Wasā’il ash-Shi’a, Volume 7, Page 326, Ḥadith 10
Imām ʿAli (peace be upon him) said: “When your assembly adjourns, may Allāh have mercy on you, then show generosity towards your dependants, kindness to your brethren, and gratitude to Allāh for what He has bestowed upon you. Come together that Allāh may unite you, do good to one another that Allāh may increase your mutual love; and congratulate one another for Allāh’s favour as He has given you the good tidings of a reward many times greater than previous or future ʿEids, except an ʿEid like it [when ʿEid falls on a Friday].”

Hadith Number 19
A Day of Greeting and Disavowal

It has been narrated from Ḥasan ibne Rāshid from Abī ʿAbdillāh [Imām Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) that he said, “May I be sacrificed for you! Do the Muslims have a festivity other than the two ‘Eid celebrations?” The Imām (peace be upon him) replied, “Yes O’ Ḥasan! (There is one) greater than these two and much worthier than them.” The companion replied, “And what day is that?” The Imām said, “The day upon which Amīrul Mo’minin [‘Alī ibne Abī Ṭalib] (peace be upon him) was appointed as the flag (of guidance) for the people.” The companion then asked, “May I be sacrificed for you! And what should we do (on this day)?” The Imām replied, “You should fast on it, O’ Ḥasan, and recite many prayers upon Muḥammad and his family and disavow yourself towards Allāh from all of those who oppressed them; surely the Prophets (of the past) also commanded their successors to consider the day of their appointment a day of celebration and ‘Eid.”

Miṣbāḥul Mutahajjid, Page 680
It has been narrated from Abī ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) that he said, “...(on the day of ‘Eid Ghadīr) you should remember Allāh, the Noble, on this day through fasting and worship and through remembering Muḥammad and the family of Muḥammad since surely the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) had advised Amīrul Mo‘minīn to take this day as a day of ‘Eid, and this is the same thing which the (previous) Prophets also did; they too advised their successors who took this day as a day of ‘Eid.”

The Day of Dedication and Prayers

عن أبي عبد الله قال: والعمل فيه يعدل ثمانيين شهرًا، وينبغي أن يكره فيه ذكر الله عز وجل، والصلاة علی النبي ويوسع الرجل فيه علی عياله.

It has been narrated from Abi ‘Abdillah [Imam Ja’far ibne Muhammed as-Sadiq] (peace be upon him) that he said, “The worth of (good) actions performed on this day (18th of Dhul Hijjah) is equivalent to 80 months (of good deeds) and one is advised to frequently remember Allah, the Noble and Grand, and send prayers upon the Prophet (blessings of Allah be upon him and his family) and that a man be generous to his family (by presenting them with gifts).”

Hadith Number 22
The Day of Seeing the Leader

It has been narrated from our master, Abūl Ḥasan ‘Alī ibne Muḥammad [al-Hādī] (peace be upon him) that he said to Abī Isḥāq: “The Day of Ghadīr is the day when the Prophet (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) appointed his brother ‘Alī as the flag (of guidance) for the people and the Imām after him.”  Abū Isḥāq said, “You have spoken the truth, may I be sacrificed for you. It is for this reason (alone) that I came to see you. I bear witness that truly you are the proof of Allāh over all of His creations.”

Hadith Number 23
The Day of Praising Allāh

Imām ‘Alī ibne Mūsā al-Riḍā (peace be upon him) has said, “Allāh will grant a person who visits a true believer on it (the Day of ‘Eidul Ghadīr) seventy types of Divine Light in his grave and will expand his grave. Every day, 70,000 Angels will visit him in the grave and they will grant him the glad tidings of Paradise.”

Hadith Number 24
The Day of Visiting and Doing Good

Imām as-Ṣādiq [Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) has said, “It is advisable for you (on the day of Ghadīr) to become close to Allāh, the Most High, through good deeds, fasting, prayers, establishing (and maintaining) family ties and establishing ties between (your) brothers. The Prophets (peace be upon all of them) did the same thing when they appointed their successors, and also advised them to act similarly.”

It has been narrated from Abī ‘Abdillāh Imām [Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Šādiq] (peace be upon him) that: “Surely it is recommended to pray inside Masjid al-Ghadīr since verily the Prophet (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) introduced the Commander of the Faithful (peace be upon him) [as the Imām] to the people here and this is the spot in which Allāh, the Noble and Grand, made known The Truth.”

Wasā‘il ash-Shi‘a, Volume 3, Page 549
It has been narrated from Abí ‘Abdillâh [Imâm Ja’far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣâdiq] (peace be upon him) that: “A person who performs a two Rakʻat Šalāt any time he wishes (during the Day of 18th of Dhul Hijjah), though it is best that this (Šalāt) be performed as close to the time of Zawwal (mid-day when the sun begins its decline; this is when the time for Šalātul Zuhr beings) as possible because this is the time at which Amîrul Moʻminin (peace be upon him) was appointed at Ghadîr Khumm as the flag of the people and … (the reward for this Šalāt) is as if the person had been present on the Day (of Ghadîr Khumm)…”
Hadith Number 27
Fasting on the Day of Ghadir

قَالَ الصَّادِقُ عَلَيْهِ الصَّرَاطُ ﷺ: صِيَامُ يَوْمِ غَدِيرِ خَمِّ يُعَدِّلُ صِيَامُ عُمَّرٍ عَمَّرَ الْدُنْيَا لَوْ عَاشَ إِنْسَانٌ ثَمَّ صَامَ مَا عُمِّرَتْ الْدُنْيَا لَكَانَ لَهُ ثَوَابَ دُلْكَ.

It has been narrated from as-Ṣādiq [Imām Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) that: “Fasting on the Day of Ghadir is equivalent to fasting the time span of the (existence of the) entire world – meaning that if a person were to live a life of the entire existence of the world and were to fast this whole time, the reward for this fasting would be equivalent to fasting (this one day of Ghadir).”

The Day of Congratulations and Smiling

It has been narrated from al-Riḍā [ʿAli ibne Mūsā] (peace be upon him) that: “...and this is a day of congratulations and felicitations in which you should greet and congratulate one another. When a believer meets another, one should say, ‘All praise belongs to Allāh who has made us amongst those who hold firm to the Wilāyat of the Commander of the Faithful and the A’immah (prayers be upon all of them); and this is a day of smiling at other people and those of true faith.’

Ḥadith Number 29
The Prophet and the Wilāyat of ‘Āli

It has been narrated from Abī Sa‘īd that: “When the day of Ghādir Khumm came, the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) commanded the caller to call out, ‘Gather for the Ṣalāt. Then he took ‘Āli (peace be upon him) by the hand and said, ‘O’ Allāh! Whomsoever I am his master, this ‘Āli is also his master. O’ Allāh! Be a friend to that person who is a friend to him, and be an enemy to that person who is an enemy to him.’”

Biḥārul Anwār, Volume 37, Page 112, Ḥadith 4
The Messenger of Allâh (blessings of Allâh be upon him and his family) has said: “A person who wishes to live the life that I lived and wishes to die the way I die, and wants to reside in the perpetual Paradise which has been promised to me by my Lord should accept the Wilâyat of ‘Ali ibne Abî Ṭâlib (peace be upon him), because he will never drag you away from the path of true guidance and he will never misguide you.”

Al-Ghadîr, Volume 10, Page 278
It has been narrated from Jābir ibne ‘Abdullah al-Anṣārī that: “I heard the Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) say to ‘Ali ibne Abi Ṭālib (peace be upon him): ‘O’ ‘Ali! You are my brother and my successor and my executor and my caliph over my nation both during my life and also after my death. Those who love you, love me; and those who hate you, hate me; and your enemy is my enemy.”

Al-Amālī of as-Ṣādūq, Page 124, Ḥadith 5
It has been narrated form Abi Ja'far [Imam Muḥammad ibne ʿAli al-Bāqir] (peace be upon him) that: “Islām is built on five foundations: Ṣalāt, Zakāt, Sawm, Ḥajj and Wilāyat – and there was no call to any of these resembling that which the people were called towards in order to accept the Wilāyah on the Day of Ghadīr.”

Al-Kāfī, Volume 2, Page 21, Ḥadīth 8
It has been narrated from Abil Ḥasan [ʿAlī ibne Mūsā al-Riḍā] (peace be upon him) that: “The Wilāyat of ‘Alī (peace be upon him) has been written in all of the books of the (previous) Prophets and Allāh did not appoint a single Messenger except with a (pledge to the) Prophethood of Muḥammad and the successorship of ‘Alī (peace be upon him).”

Wilāyat and Tawḥīd

قال رسول الله ﷺ: وللِّي علي بن أبي طالب وللِّي الله و حب الله عبادة الله و أتباعه فريضة الله و أولياؤه أولياء الله و أعداؤه أعداء الله و حرب الله و سلم الله سلم الله عزّ و جلّ.

The Messenger of Allāh (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) has said, “The Wilāyat of ʿAlī ibne Abī Ṭālib is the Wilāyat of Allāh; love for him (ʿAlī) is worship of Allāh; following him (ʿAlī) is an obligatory act from Allāh; his friends are the friends of Allāh and his enemies are the enemies of Allāh; fighting with him is (like) fighting against Allāh; and making peace with him is (like) making peace with Allāh, the Noble and Grand.”

Al-Amālī of as-Ṣādūq, Page 32
It has been narrated from Ja‘far [Imām Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) from his father [Imām Muḥammad ibne ʿAli al-Bāqir] (peace be upon him) that: "Iblīs, the enemy of Allāh, cried out (in hopelessness) four times: The day when he was cursed (by Allāh); the day when he was sent down to the Earth; the day when the Prophet (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) was officially appointed (to convey the message on Earth); and on the Day of Ghadīr.”

Hadith Number 36
The Wilāyat of ʿAlī is the Fortress of Tawḥīd

عنَ النَّبِيِّ ﷺ: يَقُولُ اللَّهُ ﺑَارَكَ وَ ﺗَعَالَى: وَلَا يَعْلَمُ عَلَىٰ بَنِ أَبِي طَالِبٍ حُصْنِي، فَمَنْ دَخَلَ حُصْنِي أَمنَّ مِنْ نَارِي.

It has been narrated from the Prophet (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family) that: “Allāh, the Glorious and High, has said, “The Wilāyat of ʿAlī ibne Abī Ṭālib is My fortress, so whoever enters into My fortress will be protected from My fire.”

Hadith Number 37
The Successor of the Prophet

The Messenger of Allâh (blessings of Allâh be upon him and his family) has said, “O’ ‘Ali! I am the city of knowledge and you are its gate and no one can enter into the city except by going through its gate … You are the Imām of my nation and you are my successor. Blessed is the person who obeys you and depraved is the person who disobeys you. One who follows you will succeed, while the one who turns away from you will be in a loss.”

Hadith Number 38
Islam in the Shadow of Wilāyat

قال الصادق: أَنَّ أَفَاتِي الإِسْلَامُ ثَلَاثَةُ: الْصَّلَاةُ وَ الزَّكُوَةُ وَ الْوَالِدَةُ، لَا تَصْحُ وَاحِدَةُ مِنْهُنَّ إِلَّا بِصَاحِبَتِهَا.

Imām as-Ṣādiq [Jaʿfar ibne Muḥammad] (peace be upon him) has said: “The fundamental pillars of Islam are three: Šalāt, Zakāt and Wilāyat. No one of these will be valid unless accompanied by the other two.”

A Thousand Witnesses

Abū ‘Abdillāh [Imām Ja‘far ibne Muḥammad as-Ṣādiq] (peace be upon him) has said, “O Ḥafṣa! I am surprised at what happened to ‘Ali ibne Abī Ṭālib!! Despite having tens of thousands of witnesses he could not claim his right when in reality a person needs only two witnesses to claim what is rightfully his!”

‘Ali – The Commentator of the Qur’an

From the Prophet (blessings of Allāh be upon him and his family), in his address on the Day of Ghadīr: “‘Ali is the exegesis (Tafsīr) of the book of Allāh and the one who calls others to it. Verily, that which is permitted and forbidden is more than what I can explain to you; what I command you as permitted and forbid you as prohibited, is all from one position. I was commanded to take your allegiance and your pledge to accept what I brought from Allāh, the Exalted, regarding ‘Ali, the commander of the believers, and the Imāms after him. O’ People! Ponder and understand the verses (of the Qur’ān), observe those that are clear and do not follow those that are unclear; for by Allāh no one can explain to you its limitations or clarify its meanings except the one whose hand I am holding (meaning Imām ‘Ali).”
